MIRACLE AT THE TEMPLE GATE

Acts 3:1-10

A. The Story

1. A beggar at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple asks Peter and John for a small coin.
2. Peter and John gave this beggar much more than he asked for.
“In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk!”

B. Peter and John had something better than money to give. They had...

1. Christ’s compassion as their motive.
2. Christ’s name as their authority.
3. Christ’s Spirit as their power.

C. What do we possess of Christ and his grace and power?

The beggar asked Peter and John for a small coin, and he received healing instead. Could it be that we, like the beggar, are asking for a little handout when God is ready to do something for us that is much more miraculous.

Are you ready to pray that God will give you his love and his Spirit to walk the pathways of life as Peter and John walked them in faith and in love and in power?
