WELCOME TO BETHEL CHURCH! Whether in person, or online, we hope your time spent worshipping the Lord will be a blessing.

Today we welcome back Rev. Paul Ipema! This morning he will look at Mark 4:35-41 – Does Jesus Really Care? Join us at 5pm for his message: From Shame to Glory from Genesis 2:25.

Next Sunday we welcome Pastor Don Jabaay to Bethel! He will be looking at scripture from Genesis focusing on “The Mother of Us All” as we celebrate our earthly mothers. For the 5pm Worship Pastor Don will look at 2 Corinthians 5:11-21 – “A Burden for the Lost”.

Also, Lord willing, next week we will celebrate the Lord’s Supper together. May God use this gift he has given through his son Jesus to affirm our faith and draw us closer to him.

There will be a COMBINED ASCENSION DAY SERVICE on May 21 for the 5pm Service held here at Bethel. Pastor Busscher will deliver the message: “The Exalted Christ: Jesus is Lord!” Join us as we celebrate our Ascended Lord!

TMC seeks to support single moms by helping them to achieve personal, financial, physical, educational, & spiritual goals in order to help them work toward independence which benefits both her and her child(ren). There are 3 TMC ministries in our area at this time; Cedar Lake, Munster (which will start in September) & DeMotte.

The DeMotte program is based at Immanuel United Reformed Church where Stacey Tolkamp is the program director. There are 2 single moms right now going through the program which started in February and there is room for more. Each mom is paired with a mentor and they meet together once a week as a group. Meetings consist of eating a meal together provided by a church volunteer and afterwards learning a life skill, meeting with a financial advisor, setting goals, or participating in a discussion. Nursery care is also provided for their children. At present, each mom is on their way to getting their GED which will open up more opportunities for employment in the future.

Thank you in advance for your monetary gifts and prayers!
